++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rain clearing to a brighter afternoon with showers.

Today:
Rain, locally heavy, will clear from eastern areas during the morning to leave a day of sunshine and scattered showers across the region. Feeling cooler than of late given the breeze. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Showers will fade this evening to leave a dry spell with clear periods. However, it will become windy overnight with another band of heavy rain sweeping eastwards across the region. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Sunday:
Wet and windy weather will clear away fairly quickly to leave another day of sunshine and scattered showers. Remaining rather blustery at times. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining unsettled through the start of the week. Often quite windy with showers at times. Some sunny spells too, but temperatures below average for the time of year.
